

GRADUATE CAREER AMBASSADORS

Connecting Students, Faculty, & Employers - Graduate Career Ambassador are representatives for their academic division to connect career development opportunities between students in their program or department with resources, faculty and employers. Providing a peer-to-peer connection for students to obtain support and tips to navigate their career development process.

Priyanshi Goyal
Computer Science
priyansh@usc.edu

Aditya Gaur
Computer Science
adityaga@usc.edu

Niharika Singh
Biomedical Engineering
singhnih@usc.edu

Kajal Taneja
Computer Science
ktaneja@usc.edu

Xueying Wang
Industrial & Systems Engineering
xueyingw@usc.edu

Sivasankar Ramarathinam
Computer Science
ramarath@usc.edu

- Attend ½ day Orientation & 3 monthly meetings/trainings
- 5-8 hour weekly commitment
- Conduct at least one presentation for SECC
- Attend and represent at least 2 on-campus events
- Respond to staff, employer and faculty inquiries
- Collaborate with VGSA Senators

- Obtain professionalism training throughout the semester
- Obtain VIP early access and registration to various Student Engagement & Career Connection events
- Provided guidance, mentorship and supervision from Career Connections staff

USC Viterbi
School of Engineering
Career Connections

April 15, 2018 Application deadline for Fall 2018

<https://tinyurl.com/SECC-GCA2018>