We have a network of specialists across 47 countries globally, our scale, reach and knowledge enable us to deliver effective solutions to support our clients.

Sophomore Women's Program

The Sophomore Women's Program (SWP) is an immersion program for second-year college/university students consisting of a virtual session as well as in person programming and networking in the New York office throughout the month of January. Students eligible for this program must be currently studying at an accredited college/university expecting to graduate in the Class of 2027. Applicants must have a desire to learn about financial services and an interest in starting a career in investment banking. Participants will gain an understanding of the industry as a whole and what a career at Rothschild & Co might be like.

Program participants will have the opportunity to interview for the 2026 Global Advisory North America Summer Analyst Program upon successful completion of the Sophomore Women's Program.
